

Belmont Forum Climate, Environment, and Health 2

Annex for [World Meteorological Organization]

| | |
|---|---|
| Duration | 3-4 years |
| Country/(ies) supported | Applicable to successfully funded CEH2 proposals and prospective CEH2 consortia |
| Description/qualifications of eligible participants | NA |
| Stipulations for the maximum number of researchers in the consortium | NA |
| Type of contribution + amount of contribution (K€) | in-kind Support from the national, meteorological, and hydrological services (NMHS) will include access, training, standardization of data for research consortia. NMHS will provide assistance and subject matter expertise to support research programs related to climate, environment, and health. NMHS will also include environmental aspects in this resource. These services include, but not limited to, marine, climate, health, energy, urban, aviation, agrometeorological, disaster risk reduction, and hydrological services. Infrastructure can be data from the surface, ocean, and atmospheric. |
| Maximum amount that can be requested per project or by researcher (K€) | NA - Please inquire by emailing the Contact Point to develop an implementation plan and to identify resources to support a project. |
| Restrictions for use of funds | NA |
| Specific themes within the call | Themes supported are stated in the call text. |
| Where to submit proposal | www.bfgo.org [and list out instructions if you have a parallel requirement for your submission] |

| | |
|---------------------------------|---|
| | |
| [Additional information] | [Additional information] |
| GPC point of contact | Julian Baez Director of the WMO Regional Office for the Americas jbaezbenitez@wmo.int Bárbara Tapia Technical Coordinator on Services for the Regional office for the Americas btapia@wmo.int |